O'N Tuesday the sich instant, being at a taxen, the fign of the Black-Horse, above the bridge, in the town of Hartford, in Connecticut, a man, who called himfelf John Wilson; came in, and feeing I had leather to fell, offered to deal with me feeing I had leather to fell, offered to dear with me if I would take in payment a note, payable to him from Mr. Ralph Isacs, merchant in New-Haven.—After examining the note, which was for 3el. lawful money, payable in 5 months, with interest, and the name of Isac Bears subscribed as a witness; the people present knowing the persons, and being of opinion that the note was good, I accepted and gave leather for it. On my arrival at New Haven, I discovered the note to be a faregrey. Mr. Bears the wife covered the note to be a forgery, Mr. Bear, the wit-ness, made-oath before a magnifeate, that his name subscribed to the note, was not his hand writing. and Mr. Ilages not being at home; his clerk affared me that his name was also a forgery, and wor Mr.

me that his name was also a forgery, and wet Mr. Isacci hand writing.

The said Wisson, was known at New Haven, where he went by another name, and had been guilty of several offences; he appeared to be about 40 years of age, a well fet man, about 5 feet 4 inches high, pock marked, fresh complexion, black long hair, which he wore clubbed behind, said he was a Scotchman, and spoke like one.

He had on, or with him, a mouse coloured surtont coat, of bearskin or conting; a pair of boots, a pair of slout thick leather brockhes, pretty much worn, a pair of new black velves breeches (made at New Haven, by Mr. Beers) a red slannel under Chimney-Office.

A/HEREAS the inhabitants of this city are frequently alarmed with the outeries of fire, proceeding for the most part, from the too-well grounded apprehensions of danger in the fire of a chimney, occasioned by its fourhest, which too often unavoidably happens, through the difficulty of obtaining proper persons to clean them at suitable seasons;

The SUBSCRIBER, encouraged by the favourable sentiments of many respectable gentlemen acwards the plan, begs the consideration of the PUBLIC on the following proposals, which shall be carried into execution as soon as a sufficient number of house keepers, consulting their own ease and safety, do put it in his power, by subscribing to the terms.

i. He propoles to procure a number of hands fusicient to clean all the chimnies of the substribers to these proposals, in this city, as often as may be thought necessary.

2. He will keep an office where the name of every person who chooses to favour this undertaking, shall be registered, with the number ofchim-nies, which are daily used, and the days, from time to time, on which they were last-cleaned.

3. He will engage that every subscriber, without the trouble of sending or searching for a person, shall be waited on every fix weeks, or month, if required, precisely on the day, from the beginning of September to the latter end of April.

4. In the summer season, the kitchen chimnies to be swept every two months, or oftener if required.

5. He will engage to pay the fine laid by law, if the chimney takes fire within four weeks after it has been cleaned by his people; unless the chimney be cracked, or the fire begin in some other part of

6. That the persons employed by the undertaker, shall be distinguished by caps numbered, and having his name on them. That they shall be under fires.

7. He promises to employ such as have heretofore engaged in this business, if they desire it.

8. The payment for cleaning each chiancy shall, be no more than the ensounce price of one shilling, main at the time, to the deputy.

9. To confidential of the great trouble and exnesses which was attend the chahishing of so useful a regulation, the subscriber intreats the subscription of the inhabitants to an engagement not to employ soy other, than the persons who may belong to the intended office, in cleaning their chimnies, so long as what is above proposed, engaged and promised, shall be punctually obscribed by himself and servants.

HIS will make them pay it more unwillingly, and be more apt to quarrel with those that collect it, and those that imposed it, who will quarrel again with them, and all shall contribute to your main purpose of making them weary of your government.

XIH. If the people of any province have been accultomed to support their own Governors and Judges to fatisfaction, you are to apprehend that fuch Governors and Judges may be thereby influenced to treat the people kindly, and do them justice. This is another reason for applying part of that revenue in larger salaries to such Governors and Judges, given, as their commissions are, during your pleasure only, forbidding them to take any falaries from their provinces; that thus the people may no longer hope any kindness from their Governors, or (in Crown cases) any julice from their Judges, And as the money thus milepplied in one province is extorted from all, probably all will refent the misapplication.

XIV. If the parliaments of your provinces should dare to claim rights, or complain of your administration, order them to be harraffed with repeated diffolutions. If the fame men are continually returned by new elections, adjourn their meetings to fome country village, where they cannot be accommodated, and there keep them, during pleafure; for this, you know, is your Paraona-TAYE; and an excellent one it is, as you may manage it, to promote difcontents amang the people, diminish their respect, and Let them learn to be correpted by great and real fmugglers but (to flow their diligence) fcour with armed boats every bay, barbour, river, creek, cove or nock, throughout the coast of your colonies; flop and detain every coafter, every wood boat, every fisherman, tumble their cargoes, and even their ballaft, infide out, and upfide down, and if a penn'worth of pine is found unentered, let the whole be feized and conficated. Thus shall the trade of your colonists fuffer more from their friends in time of peace, than it did from their enemies in war. Then let these boats crews land upon every farm in their way, rob the orchards, fleat, the pigs and the poultry, and infult the inhabitants, If the injured and exasperated farmers, unable to procure other justice, should attack the aggreffors, drub them, and burn their boats, you are to call this high treason and rebellion, order feets and armies into their country, and threaten to carry all the offenders three thousand miles to be hanged, drawn and quartered. O! this will work admirably!

XVI. If you are told of discontents in your colonies, never believe that they are general. or that you have given occasion for them; therefore, do not think of applying any remedy, or of changing any offensive measure; Redrefe no grievance, left they thould be encouraged to demand the redress of feme nther grievance. Grant no request that is just and reasonable, left they should make another that is unreasonable. Take all your informations of the flate of the colonies from your Governors and Officers, in enmity with them . Encourage and reward thele leafing makers; fecrete their lying accusations, lett they should be consuted; but act upon them as the clearest evidence, and believe nothing you bear from the friends of the people ;suppose all their complaints to be invented and promoted by a few sadious demagogues, whom if you would eatch and hang, all ould be quiet. I OW much the People are taxed, in England you will judge, when I affure you, that according to the best Information I have been able to obtain, Estates in garneral, pay nearly a Third of their yearly Value in taxes; nor are there any Limits to their Extension, but the Ministry's Appreheasion, that the People either could not or would not, fubmit to pay any more.

By this, you may judge what will be the Condition of the Colonies (which you may affore yourselves, will not be favoured) if they once admit the Right of the Britis Parliament to tax them, or even if they lubmit to foch Taxation : For, if the Minifire can but prevail with you, either by Force, or Cunning, to pay their Exaction will not be much concerned, whether you admir their Right or not every Day will firengthen their Pretentions to it, and their Power, and proportionably weaken yours And it you cannot now, while the Novelty, as well as Injustice of the Demand, forces your general Attention, he manimous and refolius enough to defend your Rights and property; it will be in vain too you to depend upon recovering them afterward; it they are once given up they are too fine every. The plausible Pretence for the Taxation of the British Colonies, is, that as they receive Benefit and Protection from the British Government, they angle to contribute to admir their Right or not ; every Day will the Expense of it, especially as the People in Great Britain, are already burden'd as heavily as they are able to bear. This Pretence gives the Menture, with ignorant Paople, fome Degree of Popularity ; butthe Nation in general'(I don't mean those concerned in the executive Powers of Government) fee through the Palacy, and deted it. They look upon the present Struggle, between the Colonies, in Defeace of their Rights and Freedom, and the arbitrary Powers which would enflave them, in a very interelting Point of View. They confider A. merican Freedom, as the Palladium of their own: They, therefore with and pray for your Firmnefs, Perfeverance, and Success; though from their present Circumstances, and Situation, they cannot yet effectually affit you. The English Confitution, almost destroyed in England, from your Virtue and Resolution, they hope may revive again, and recover its former Life and Vigour ; at leaft, that if rooted out of Great Britain, it may live and flourith in America, which now begins to be confidered as an Afylam from Oppreffice, not only in England, but in all the Nations of Europe. And if you do but preferve your conflicutional Rights and Liberties, you may depend upon it, that People, and Arts, and Manufactories, will flock to you from all Quarters of the Globe; and Riches and Power, will follow of Course. But take Care you do not fall into the Vices, Luxury, and Opprefion, that have brought Ruin and Deficacion to all the greatest States and Kingdoms that ever appeared in the World, and which now threaten the like Fate to the Land of our Nativity. Confider the Importance of the Parts you are now to act, the Freedom, the Happiness of yourselves, and your Pofferity, of the whole British Nation; and of the Oppressed of all Natieas, ferme now to depend upon you. The Eyes, the annious Hopes of all, are upon you. Think oh think! what ought to be your Conduct, when a Charge of fuch Consequence devolves upon you: Providence has placed you in a most important Station; fee that you discharge the Duties of it with Faithfulnets and Dignity. Great will be your Praise, it you do, and your Dishonour, if you do not. If the enormous Taxes, that are laid upon the People in England; and even those that are demanded of her Coloaies, were really secessary, for the Support be an Excuse for proposing them; but in that Cafe, both the Expediency, and Mode of levying them in America, if the Colonia. acy, and Mode of levying them in America, if the Colonida are really Freemen, ought undoubtedly to depend upon their Judgment, and Determination. Her when we find by woful Experience, the principal Defign and Application of the Money, extorted from the People, is to violate their most facred Rights, to subvert the English Constitution, and establish a System of Oppression, and Tyransy is its stead; the Demand itself, is, both an open Attack upon our Rights, and an Infast to our Understanding; and a tame Submission, or an irresolute Resusal, will Submillion, or an irrefolute Refusal, will justing he imputed to Publicationity, Mean-

Indeed if the Ministry could effect their School of Taxing the Colonies, the it might afford them a temporary Relief from their prefinit Lanbarraffment, it would only for a flore Time suspend the inevitable For a Bort Fine Infpend the inevitable Ruin that awaits their Meafares, which no national Funds can possibly long support. A System of Bribery and Corruption must specify produce its own speedy Destruction. So that if you flouid submit to be taxed and enflaved, your Freedom would be facrified for Nothing,—unless to make the Rais of Great Britain more certain, and have the Honour, or rather Difference of falling with it. If you maintain your Rights and Freedom, Great Britain may possibly secover its Constitution, through the more Failure of Means to accomplish its Destruction. Already, the System of Corruption is in the utmost Difference, the Streams of Wealth percentage to support its Streams of Wealth pecchary to support it are quite exhausted,—the oppressed People are already taked as match or more than they can bear p—Trade and Manufastories de-

There are indeed here fome fordid Spirits, who think the Colonies flourish too fatt, and envy their growing Greatness. But these Milanthropitts, are not confiderable, either in Number or Abilities.

If you ecquit your felves properly in this Triel, I have fome Reason to hope, it will be the left formidable one, you will have to festain. Some of these Teas are to be fint to feveral different Colonies, to try the Spirit of the People, and according as they behave, they will hereafter be confider'd and treated,-as Freemen, or as Slaves. I have the best Authority for what I write, and you may depend upon the Truth of it.
There are now gone down the River, for America, 2000 Chefts of Tes, three Years old, foose of it mouldy and unwholfome, to be fold at public Vendue, as low as 17d. per Pound. General Monckton was offer'd a Commission to go with it to New York, and land it under his Protection, as he was known to be much esteemed there : But he, who is a true Friend to the Colonies, and the Rights of a British Subject, nobly refuled,—at did also the Captains of the American Ships, to take it on Freight.— And numerous are the People here, who join me in earnest Hopes and Wifhes, that your Conduct on this important Occasion, will equally merit Applause, and procure to your felves and Country, immortal Honour, and permanent Happines: England will glory in your Relation to her, and join you in Support of that Freedom, and those Principles, that raised her to Grandeur and Eminence among the Nations. -- Be watchful, be firm, and be happy, &c.

Mr. HOLT, TAVING lately been in Connecticut, I I obtained a copy of the act of the General Asembly of that colony, conficuting a new kind of punishment, for several crimes ; it was paffed in their laft October fession: I fend you an abstract of it, and shall be wind to fee it in your Journal when there is room. It is intitled, and act for constituting, regulating, and governing a public gool, or work house, in the Copper Mines, in Symptony; and for the punishment of sertain atrocious crimes, and fele-

It is enacted, that the fubterraneous eaverns, and buildings in the Copper mines, in Symfbury, lately erected, by order of the General Affembly, be conflittude a public gool, or work house, for the use of the coony, and Ihall be called New Gate Prifes.

That a mafter, or keeper, or three overfeers, be appointed, from time to time, by the General Affembly: That the mafter, or keeper of faid gool, shall receive in the same, all such persons as shall be fent there, by warrent, from lawful authority, by virtue of this act; and fall keep them to fuch labour as they shall be capable of, for fuch time as they shall be fenteneed, and ordered to remain there; and may punish them by putting fetters and shackles upon them; and by moderate whipping, not exceeding ten Aripes for any one offence; which punishment may be inflicted in cale they be finbborn, diforderly, or idle, and do not well and faithfully perform their talls, as they that be reasonably flinted, or required; or in cafe they thall not fubmit to, and obferve fech rules and orders, we that! be ferre fech rules and orders, an shall be from time to time made, and established, for the well ordering and governing the same.

The master to account to the overseers for the carnings of the prisoners. The overseers to provide food, alothing, and successes to provide food, alothing, and fuch roots, implements, and uniterials, as shall be necessary, to be repeid out of the earnings of the prisoners: If they prove infusions, then out of the colony treasury; their accounts to be adjusted, and feeled fufficient, then out of the colony treasury; their accounts to be adjusted, and fettled amountly, in May.

Persons convicted of the following crimes, are to be sent to New Vate Prijen, via, of breaking up any dwelling house, or shop, wherein goods, water, and merchandite, are kept; of robbing any person in the field, or highway; of counterleiting of any bills of credit, of any of the English colonies or provinces, on the continent; of passing any such bills, knowing them to be counterfeiting, and abeting in such counterfeiting; are counterseiting any gold, of lines counterseiting, and abeting in the colony; or passing such coins, knowing them to be being the coins, knowing them to be being in the colony; or passing such coins, knowing them to be being the coins, knowing them to be being the coins, knowing them to be being that and allowing them to be being the coins, knowing them to be being that and allowing them to be being that and allowing them to be being the coins, knowing them to be coins.

Jank informed, that the mines in Symple-y, are fink about 70 feet below the fun-face of the earth; that one third of the way down, a spacious room is prepared for the feception of the gentry; and that it is not intended they shall see the fun, except in case of lickhess, during the term of their consinement. If I live to know the effect of this regulation, you thall hear from me a-gain. For the prefent, will only observe, that, though the laws, manners, customs, and conduct of the Tankies, may by some be thought, very just and proper subjects of ridicule amongst us; yet, if they should happen, by chance, to blunder into any useful regulation, I conceive it might not be altagether improper, if it should not be thought to derogate too much from our great wisdom, to take a hint from them.

I am, your humble fervant, PHILANTHROPOS.

MR. HULT TAKE the News Papers, both from you and Mr. Rivington, and as there are frequently in his Paper Things that I don't like, and others that I do not understand : sad as I do not choose to enter into a perfonal Dispute with him. or to be known as a Dilapprover of any Thing in his Paper, I take this Method to deelare my Sentiments, rather than by writing to him. I should have proceeded in the same Manner with you, if I had thought it necessary to declare my Disapprobation of any Publications in your News Paper, for I have no Ill. Will, or Partiality to either of you, but respect you both, in Proportion as I think you useful Members of Society, and Promoters of the real Interest of your Country.

As I am a plain Country Man, and have not that general Intercourse with Mankind, that populous Towns and Cities afford; to this may be owing my Dislike of many Things that feem to pals current in those Places, without Censure or Animadversion. I am therefore extremely diffident of myfelf, and should be much obliged to any Person, who would be fo charitable as to redify my Judgment, if my Sentiments are wrong, of the Pieces I am going to mention, viz,

In Mr. Rivington's Paper of the 6th Infant, the untimely Death of a Person on Long Island, is mentioned in a very light and ludierous Manner; and in his Paper of the 12th, the fame Impropriety is repeated, -any the Author has thought the Subject fo pleafant, that it inspired him with poetical Fancies, and tempted him to display his Wit and Humour, in Rhyme. Now, to me, it appears, that Death is a very awfol Subica, whether we confider it as a total Diffolution of every focial and endearing Connection in this World ; or as a Period of infinite Importance to us, as an Introduction to an unknown State of future Exidence, when we may be fixed in a State of endless Murder, we are taught to confider as one of the most dreadful Crimes that can be nitted; and felf Murder as the molt horrid of all Murders, because it leaves a Man no Time for Repentance, or Change of Disposition, but dismisses him to his final Account, spaded with all his Crimes, and this in particular, one of the most atrocious, that human Nature is capable of. How then could this Author think, this tremendons Action, a fit Subject for trifling and ludierous Representation! Can be think the unhappy Deceased, or any of his furviving Friends, and Acquaintance, find, or think it to? Why then would be sport with the Distrelles of the Living, or the Fate of the Dead !

The Author's Defin, in Comparison of what I have mentioned, is fuch a Trifle, that I can hardly excule mylelt, for taking the Time to point out any Faults, or Inerer, L fall mention our Particular.

In the 3d. Verse, he says a filten Noofe is tougher than one of Hamp, the rougher.

But he says (Verse 4) by Way of Approbation of the Action, that he who was sated to one of them, and had his Choice, would ever choose that which was firingest, and would somest end his Sufferings. This, by his own Account is the files Cord. How then does he justify John tor chooling that Juli received from Philadelphia, A choice Parcel of MEDICINES. Prepared by Doct. GEORGE WEED.

Late Apothecary to the Penalylvania Holpital. JOHN HOLT,

THESE medicines, which he hath prepared, from above thirty five years experience, collected from the best of authors, and the most emissent praditioners of physic and surgery, both in town and sountry, are now published, not merely from a sucrative disposition, but a sincere define to do good to his fellow creatures, and to relieve them his fellow creatures, and to relieve them from those painful disorders their natures are subject to, in this state of mortality. What greater blessings can we enjoy, as to the comforts of this life, than our health? As he hath prepared the very best of medicines, which he fells upon the most reasonable terms, that the poor may beable to purchase them, and those who live at a distance from Dofter may find relief; those who are not able to purchase, and are in diffres, shall have them gratis. The author can with great satisfaction acquaint the public, that these medicines have had great success in Philadelphia, New Jerfey, and Pennfylvania provinces, which will appear by the cer-tificates of sures given with the directions; those who make use of these medicines may depend upon their being fase, and by the bleshing of God, will answer the end for which they are prescribed.

1. A Syrup and Powder, which cures the bloody flux, and all forts of purgings : the fyrup gives immediate eafe in the most raching pains; and is a most excellent medicine to quiet froward children, and make them healthy; and gives immediate case in the hysteric choice.

II. Royal Balfam: this cures all kinds of wounds and bruifes, either inward or outward, and helps pains in the back from cold, ward, and helps pains in the back from cold, weakness, or being over firsted; it cures corns on the feet, and eafes them when painful; and helps pains in the breast or side, from plearatic disorders.

MI. Syrup of Balling; this helps consumptive coughs, if not too far gone, and coughs coming from cold; it relieves the hooping cough in children, and takes away those pains in the breast and side which are caused by the cough, and helps shoetness of breath.

V4. These Amera, or Bitter Tinsture; this strengthens the stomach, helps the digestion, expels wind from the stomach and bowels; stalps sickness at the stomach, sope vositing, cures dizziness of the head, kills worms in children, helps the scurvy, cures a stinking breath, is good against considered, flutulencies, and the bissous cholie.

V. Essence of The; cures cachezies and firthlencies, and the biffour cholie.
